A WORD FROM Paul & Bruce

In our signature fusion of classical and contemporary style, we present a series of thrilling ways to engage with the Baroque.

From a male soprano who will dazzle you with energy and colour, to the Brandenburg soloists showcasing their virtuosity, to the raw power of the entire orchestra, to the interplay between musical and physical storytelling in collaboration with Circa, and to the profound depths and heights of the Brandenburg Choir, Season 2025 promises a powerful and moving journey through the Baroque.

As we usher in another exciting new chapter in the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra's evolving narrative, our latest season reflects deeply on the theme of 'Life'—a concept both vast and intimately personal. In this quickly changing world, we offer moments of reflection as we delve into life's profound questions, as always in the Brandenburg's uniquely bold and energised style.

In 2025 be moved by the fearlessness of living out loud; marvel at the capacity of the human body and mind, and celebrate the life-giving essence of water. We invite you to engage with us in this powerful exploration and be uplifted, be moved, and as always, be renewed.

To our loyal audience members who have been on our journey of growth and evolution, we thank you for your passion and enthusiasm. To our private, corporate and Government donors and partners, we are humbled by your faith and belief in our mission. To the new faces joining us for the first time, we are grateful for the opportunity to reward curiosity for Baroque in new audiences of all generations.

Together, let's explore the profound theme of 'life' through the universal language of music.

A BIT ABOUT US

The Brandenburg

Live, vulnerable and raw, the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra is unapologetic in our mission to push the limits of experience in the celebration of past and present-day human creativity.

We're here to challenge ideas and reinterpret the icons of Baroque and Classical music for the 21st century, creating new audiences to ensure early music lives on in the hearts and minds of new generations.

Reigniting early music from the 16th, 17th and 18th century on period instruments, that is where our faith for tradition begins and ends. Loved for our personality, warmth and spirit, Australia's flagship period orchestra is for the bold explorers who are unsatisfied having their expectations met with the tropes of pomp and predictability.

We're for the wanderers who courageously thirst for something new; for the seekers and searchers who relish in the spirit of international collaboration for which we are known, which continues to spread deep throughout the world, uncovering the freshest talent and genre-bending virtuosos from all corners of the globe.

And 35 years on, the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra & Brandenburg Choir story continues to evolve as our performances and recordings make a mark on ARIA awards, Hollywood movie scores, international collaborations, festivals, sell-out concert halls in capital cities, and intimate performances in regional communities.

Beyond flawless professionalism and critical acclaim as the leading orchestra in our field, it's the personalities of the orchestra through which we shine. As the nation's veritable incubator of Baroque talent, our legacy continues through our alumni: a growing ecosystem of next-generation Brandenburg artists who go on to spark countless early music ensembles around Australia, and join international acts, further expanding the reach and impact of our cherished genre.

As much as our performances described 'like stepping back in time, as the sounds of period instruments resurrect Baroque and classical works with reverence and authority,' as proclaimed by The Australian, we're equally about pushing forward with relevance and creativity.

Through genre-defying productions collaborating with contemporary artisans, set designers, authors, directors, projectionists and creative agencies, we treat even the most seasoned audience members to experience the iconic scores of our common cultural fabric woven into a bold new tapestry: always fresh; frequently unexpected; forever exciting.

We are the Brandenburg. And our story, which began with our debut performance at The Sydney Opera House in 1990, is still unfolding. We invite you to be part of it.

Samuel Mariño

The Sopranista returns

Kicking off our season in fabulous style, male soprano Samuel Mariño, known for his bold and fearless performances, returns to our stage as our glittering guest.

Back by popular demand, the trailblazing smash hit of our 2022 season once again promises to challenge and transcend gender boundaries with his daring and vivid ode to the power of woman. Through the theatricality and emotional depth of Handel's arias, we will embark on a dazzling escapade of vocal virtuosity that has been lovingly programmed by Mariño in homage to the many facets of the female identity. From the queen to the sorcerer, to the femme fatale, Mariño explores diverse feminine archetypes through his unique lens to deliver universal messages of longing and hope that will touch your heart.

Mariño's unique voice, and fearless, dynamic presence will resonate with strength and beauty as we traverse the emotional landscape of human experience. For a night where tradition meets audacity, witness a celebration of artistic freedom that inspires as much as it cheekily provokes through Mariño's profound and exhilarating perspective.

Bold, powerful and erupting with emotion.

Water Music

Precious, life-giving, pure

In a profound celebration of water, the Brandenburg explores an homage to water's spiritual and cultural significance as the foundation of our existence and survival: the essential element of life.

A powerful and resonant tribute from seasoned collaborators. Rrawun Maymuru, an ocean and waterway custodian hailing from East Arnhem Land debuting an original composition created with Nick Wales, a classically trained contemporary composer. Sung in the language of the Yolngu people, this heartfelt ode to water promises to echo deep within the soul of every listener.

The homage continues with the Brandenburg's vibrant rendition of Handel's complete Water Music masterpiece brought to life with the Orchestra's signature celebratory exuberance.

This performance serves as an experiential meditation on our custodial duty to our world. Through music and song, the Brandenburg explores the crucial themes of water's essence, and our collective responsibility to cherish, conserve and protect it.

In this concert experience, water is not only celebrated but revered—a reminder of water as the constant, vital thread flowing through our past, our present, and our future.

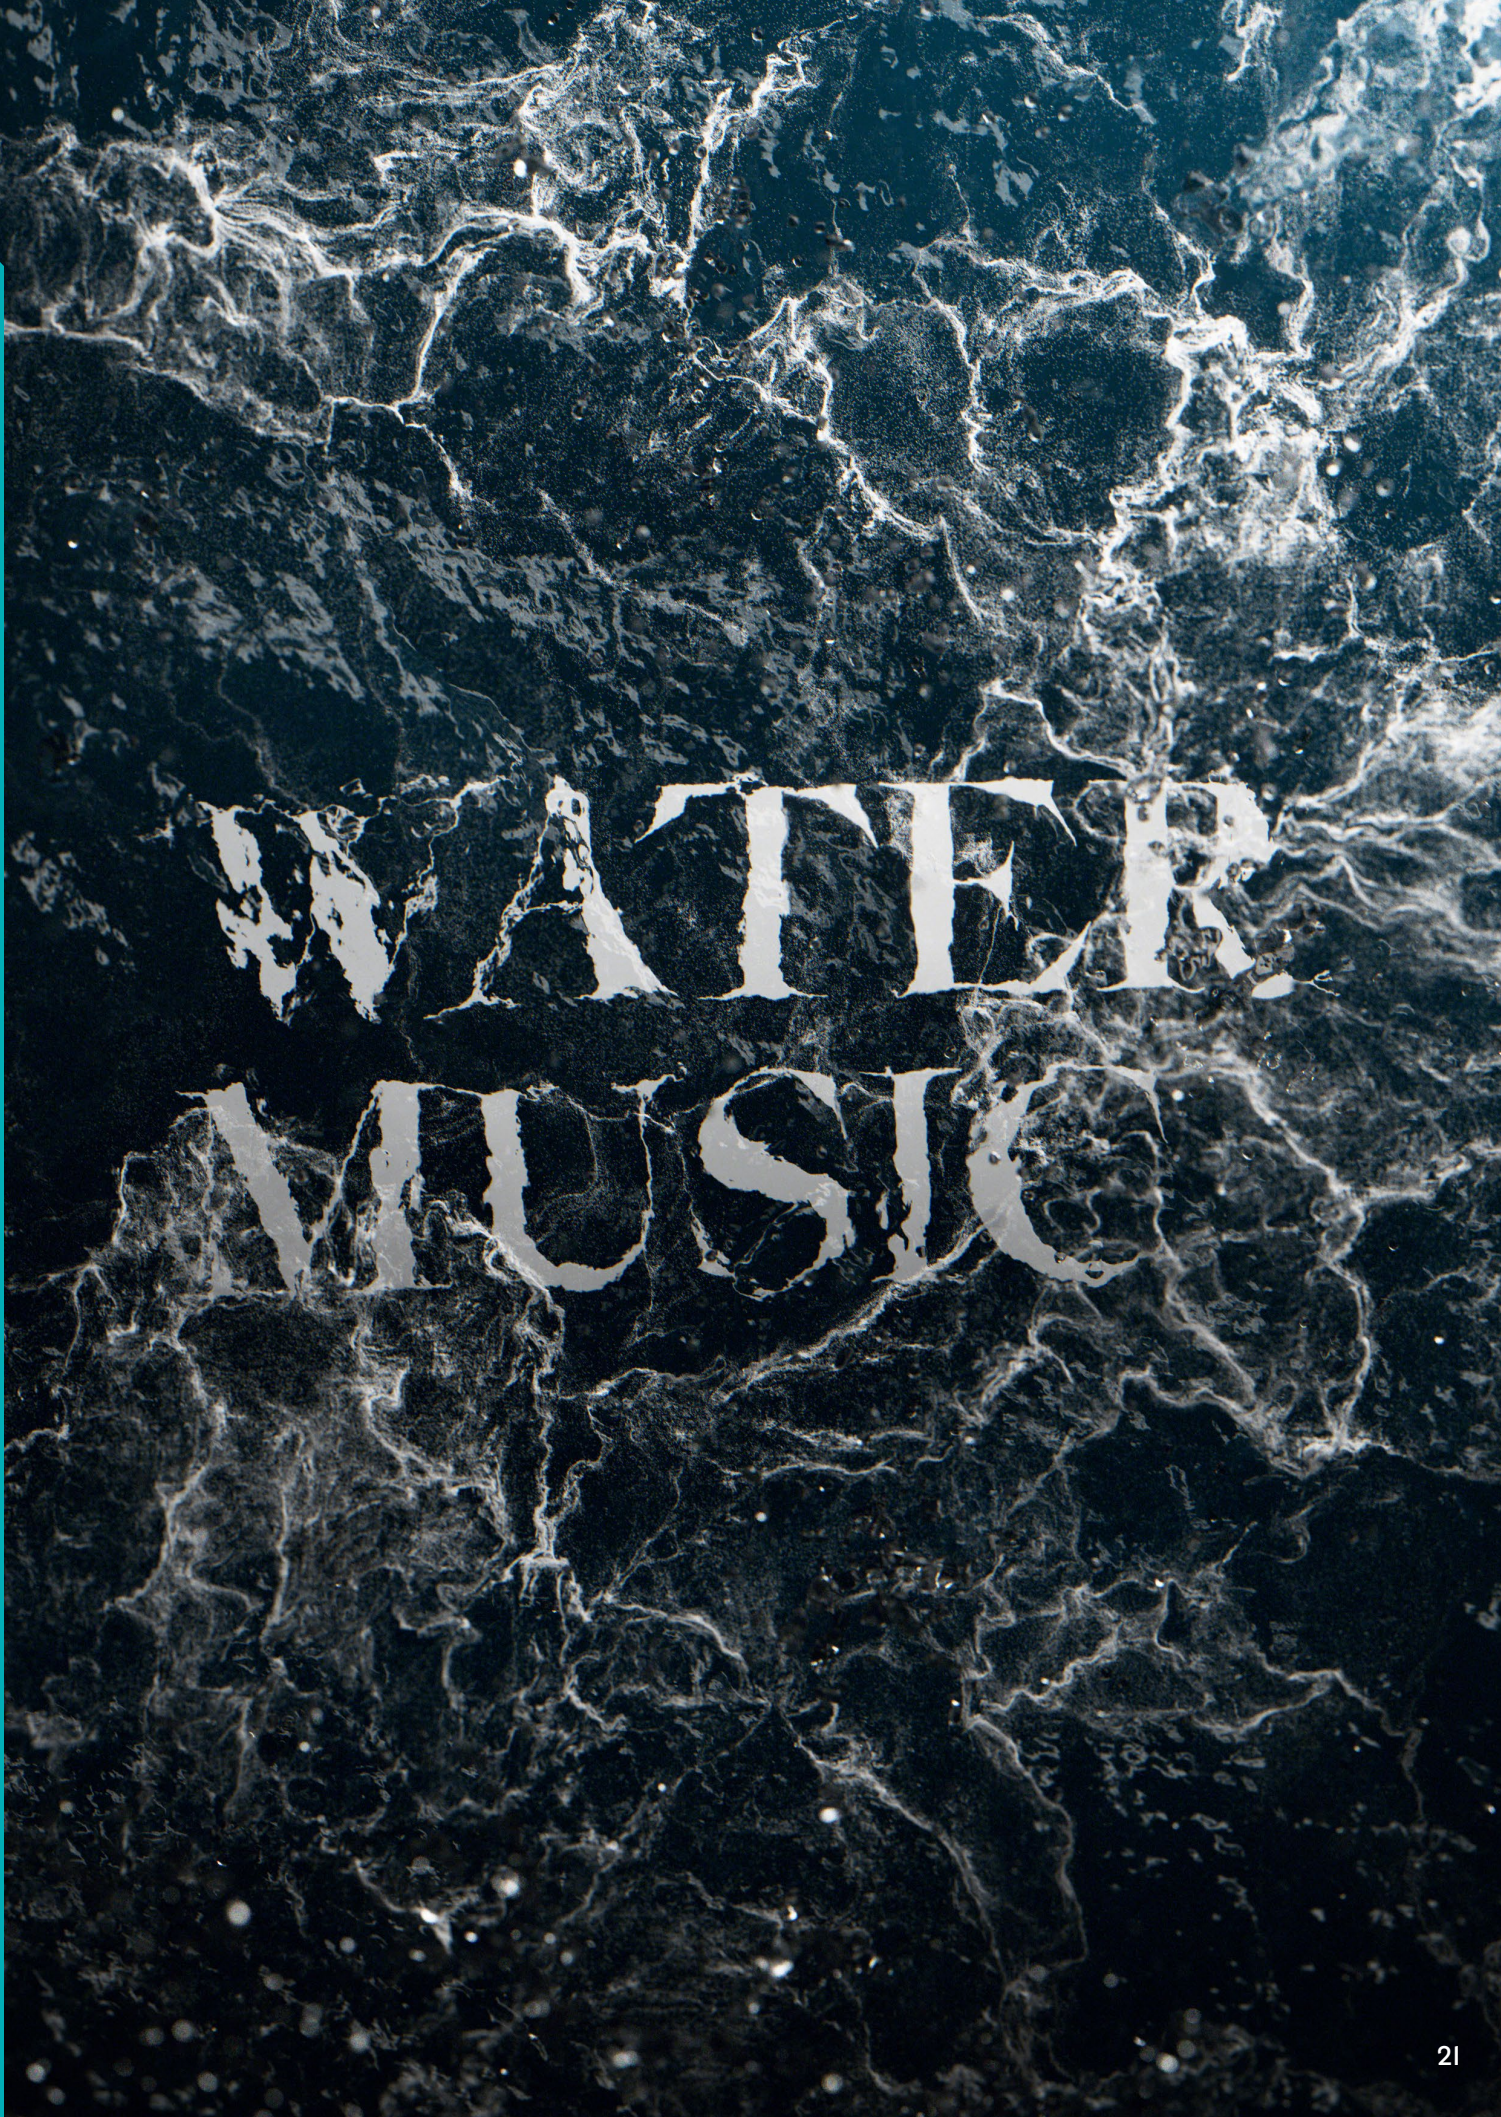

Jubilant, deeply moving and profound.
